Welcome to our 48th Mail Sale—
Where you'll find something of interest to every specialist.
Always Quality and Diversity!

Dear Fellow Philatelist:

If you've been a bidder with us over a number of years, you know there's really nothing quite like our HUGE WINTER MAIL SALES...and believe me when I say that our Mail Sale No. 48 closing at 6:00 pm, DECEMBER 2 will be one of our most spectacular in history!

CAREFUL EXAMINATION OF THIS CATALOG CAN PAY DIVIDENDS!

From a choice selection of United States Match & Medicine stamps from the 19th century (see below) and hundreds of lots of U.S. British and Foreign stamps and covers, to our well known policy of offering a fine array of U.S. and Worldwide collections and large lots (124 of them!), we're offering here great material that requires lot by lot examination. See for yourself.

FOR INSTANCE...

You'll find over 40 lots of rather unusual and better United States covers, most of them with special markings. Also: 70 lots featuring a specialized United States Officials from all departments—plus a highly complete collection valued at $18,000 (See Lot 2787). For the U.S. specialist seeking to fill album spaces with high quality single stamps, you'll see scores to choose from. And be sure to check the British Commonwealth material, too!

U.S. MATCH & MEDICINE

33 lots in the $100-$300 catalog range in better than normal condition. Plus three remainder M&M collections in the back of our catalog with high catalog values.

Examples: A J.W. Champion Co. (RS47b), 4-cent black, unused imperf, one of only 36 copies reported. A J.E. Hetherington (RS120d), 2-cent black, unused with an attractive starting bid of $260. A Halloway's Pills (RS125a), 1-cent blue unused horizontal pair, rich, deep colors.

Remember: our custom-designed "VIEW, CLICK & BID" AUCTION SYSTEM is available on our site for ALL of our mail sales. Find out how easy it is to view and bid on any lots in our fabulous mail sales.

Do take a moment and sit back and enjoy the material you'll see here. We wish you good luck in your bidding....and a Happy Holiday Season!

Sincerely,

Greg Kellermann
President
